

SPECIAL MEETING
COUNCIL CHAMBERS-CITY HALL
MAY 30, 2019 – 6:00 P.M.

The City of Kendallville met in special session Thursday May 30, 2019 at 6:00 p.m.

Roll call was answered by Mayor SuzAnne Handshoe, Council member Regan Ford, Council member Jim Dazey, Attorney Doug Atz, Council member Steven Clouse and Council member Amy Ballard. Council member Larry Davis was absent.

BZA: John Blume, David Lange and Scott Durbin

Plan Commission: David Button, Rick Kiersey, Lisa Cordial, Amy Ballard, Todd Hanes, John Blume, Mike Fitch and Regan Ford.

EID: Joe Sells and John Cazier.

Others present were: Steven Garbscz - KPC Media, Kevin Kelly - Avilla News, Mike Schultz - WA WK, Chris Jansen, Jacob Atz, Jerry Spaw, Ray Scott, Kristen Johnson, Larry Doyle, Lance Harman, Terry Longworth, Rob Wiley, Matt Riehm, Mike Riehm, Scott Mosley, Ryan Alwine, Mark Schultz and Scott Derby.

Pledge of Allegiance

The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by all in attendance.

Mayor SuzAnne Handshoe stated that this Special Meeting is to get all of us on the same page as far as the vision we have for the City of Kendallville. The Mayor then introduced Jacob Atz with Kendallville Restoration, Inc. Jacob Atz explained that they will be a tax exempt organization that will be purchasing properties in Kendallville to refurbish or demolish. Jacob had a slide show with areas that they would be targeting. Some discussion took place.

The Special Meeting ended at 6:40 p.m.

Sheryl Hanes-Clerk Treasurer

Minutes approved by me this 18th day of June, 2019.

W. SuzAnne Handshoe-Mayor